

Acts 6:1-7
Choosing of the Seven

1 - “a complaint rose on the part of the Hellenistic Jews against the native Hebrews”

Hellenists -

Hebrews -

5 - “and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch”

Stephen -

Philip -

Prochorus -

Nicanor -

Timon -

Parmenas -

Nicolas -

Food for Thought

- The church faces an _____ issue and appoints capable men to deal with it.
- _____ and _____ are natural barriers to unity, but they are not insurmountable problems.
- It seems doubtful that this passage should be taken as a _____ on how to appoint deacons.

