

Acts 15:36-16:5

The Second Missionary Journey Begins

15:36-41 Dispute over John Mark

16:1-3 Paul and Silas pick up Timothy

16:4-5 Paul's work in the Lycaonian region

Food for Thought

- Disagreement between Paul and Barnabas was handled without creating _____.
- Paul was willing to sacrifice _____ for the sake of the gospel.

Like Paul's first missionary journey, the second was also based out of Antioch on the Orontes. The beginning of Paul's second missionary journey was to revisit the churches planted in Lycaonia. The fact that Barnabas went to Cyprus implies that Paul did not, and the order of the cities he first visited indicates that he travelled overland, beginning with Cilicia (and perhaps his own hometown of Tarsus). This map is adapted from map 111 of the New Moody Bible Atlas.