

Acts 16:6-15
First Foray into Europe

6-8 Circuitous route to Troas

9-12 Call into Macedonia

13-15 Paul's first European convert-- Lydia

Food for Thought

- This section records an unusually high level of God's _____ to direct Paul's route.
- Lydia's commitment to become a disciple of Jesus was followed immediately by _____.

Paul and his companions were prevented by God from evangelizing in Asia or Bythynia. Instead, they were called to Macedonia. The route from Pisidian Antioch to Troas shown here was about 430 miles. At about 15 miles per day, this would have taken a month (29 days). The two-day voyage to Neapolis was about 135 miles. Philippi was about 8 miles inland from Neapolis.
