

Acts 19
Paul's Letters to Corinth

Writing in the 1st century AD

How do we know when Paul wrote the Corinthian letters?

How many letters did Paul write to Corinth?

How did these letters get published?

Readers and reading in the 1st century AD

Colossians 4:16

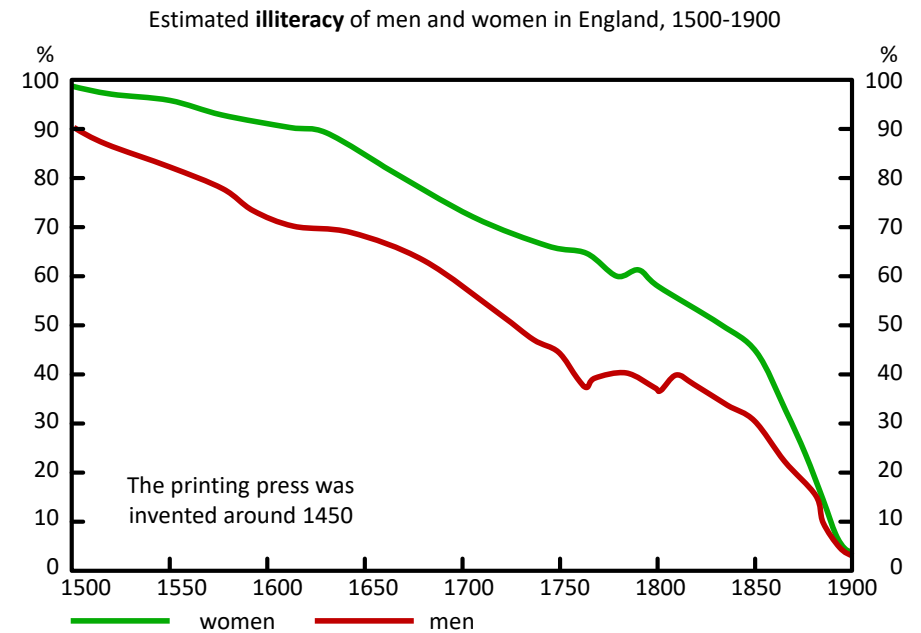

1 Thessalonians 5:27

1 Timothy 4:13

Revelation 1:3

Food for Thought

- The invention of the _____, which enabled today's high literacy rates, gives us unprecedented access to Scripture.
- Our access to Scripture creates greater _____ (Luke 12:47-48).
- Reading is no substitute for _____. Better to read little and _____ much, than to read much and _____ little.

Fresco of Terentius Neo and his wife in the pose of intellectuals, from Pompeii, AD 55-79.